"She is speaking to people that she knows about the opportunity and has already had me go around to see a prospect from her warm list!"

SARAH ROY

Sarah Roy started on the Break Free kit. In the first week she has already picked up £136 of orders with five catalogues. She put the catalogues out three times in her first week. The first time she picked up no orders because she didn't present, the second time she presented and got £50 and the third time she picked up £86. She is a great student and is in touch with us every step of the way. She is speaking to people that she knows about the opportunity and has already had me go around to see a prospect from her warm list!

CAROL HUNTER

Carol Hunter joined with the Break Free kit. She initially requested a catalogue through our Kleeneze website, but as she lived in Scotland it was a bit far for us to deliver one. So, instead we did an online presentation. After she joined, we advised her that as she worked in a hospital to get the catalogue around her work colleagues and friends. With her first 5 catalogues, she collected £164.25 in orders. She now has the catalogues out to another 5 friends and is eagerly awaiting her free catalogues.

"She took a book to her mum's retirement home and asked if she could leave the book with them. Two days later she went back and picked orders up of £100!"

LILLIAN CLARKE

Lillian Clarke joined with the Break Free. Within the first week of joining she had £160 worth of orders. She took her books to everyone she knew - to her job and family but what we thought was great about Lillian, was that she outside of the box before we even met her. She took a book to her mum's retirement home and asked if she could leave the book with them. Two days later she went back and picked orders up of £100! She will be dropping there every 4 weeks from now on!
The right person WILL do whatever it takes to succeed.

NICKY AMAMIZE

Our new starter, Nicky Amamize is doing amazingly well. Originally when I spoke with her about joining she wanted the Break Free kit. I explained that if she really wanted to earn more money from the off, she may be better off investing in the Business Builder Kit and she could get stuck in with more catalogues from day one. And that's just what she did, starting with the Business Builder 50. Nicky is a full-time mum of three sons, two of which are at school. While the boys are at school, she goes out with her youngest son, and spends the day presenting and collecting the catalogues. Within her first 2 weeks she hit the 10% level, and now in her third week she has placed another order for £475 and sponsored her first team member. I am so proud of her; I know she is going to go very far.

"I can see how easily attainable bonuses and incentives are. I have all the support and tools I need to begin my Kleeneze journey."

JEMMA KANE

I came across Kleeneze through an Internet advert and it seemed like the perfect opportunity to earn extra money while still being able to be a mum to my 4 year old daughter. I've only been started a couple of days with only 5 catalogues and already orders are coming in, now I can see how easily attainable bonuses and incentives are. I have all the support and tools I need to begin my Kleeneze journey.

GLYN AND CLAIRE HILLIER

Claire and I joined Kleeneze on 2 February with the Break Free option. Having worked for 16 years with a local supermarket, my hours were cut down from 36.5 per week to only 16 hours. Claire is a qualified care assistant for the elderly, and took time out after the birth of our two young daughters, now aged 5 and 3. However, once my hours were cut, she started to look for work, but to no avail. Since we joined Kleeneze, Claire and I have made £241.95 worth of sales in one week, giving us a profit of £50. We had five books to start and, as advised, distributed them to people that we know. We gave the catalogues to 22 people and had 14 orders from those. We are very excited about the return and are in the process of speaking to friends and colleagues about this wonderful opportunity.
